

The Farmer's Valentine

For male choir, unaccompanied

Words and music by Wilbur Skeels

T1
T2

1. When I was a child, my moth - er said she
2. When I was a youth, my fath - er said, "Be loved me ev' - ry day. She kissed me when I friends with all you may, For love is a girl who will

3

6

went to bed, and knelt with me to pray. So I turn your head, and a game for all to play. So I wrote her name on a Val - en - tine card and sent it on its wrote all their names on my Val - en - tine cards and sent them on their way; so I wrote her name on a Val-en-tine card and way; so I wrote all their names on my Val-en-tine cards and 15

9

12

sent it on its way.
 sent them on their way, on their way!

1 2 segue

19

3. When I was a man, I found in - stead that the game's not eas - y to play. But I met a maid in the milk - ing shed who

Melody

22

uni. uni.

INCOMPLETE